BREADTH AND LENGTH.

THEY "LINE DRIVES" MATRIMONIALY IN A DIME MUSEUM.

The Groom Eight Feet High, and the Bride, About. Likewise in Horseshoe. Rental Expense—Only One Cent.

New York, Feb. 25.—A marriage of unusual proportions occurred in a Roman cathedral, Tuesday, when the Rev. A.
C. Moorehead united Miss Maud Pettit, of County Tyrone, Ireland, to Charles Price, of Madagascar. Invitations were scattered broadcast, and each guest deposited a dime with the cashier as a guarantee of good faith when he entered the museum. The reason for the unusual token manifested in these nuptials lay in the fact that both the bride and groom were remarkable people. The lady, Tuesday registered 400 pounds on a hay-scales.
The gentleman, is no less distinguished, possessing, as the doer, the characteristics of being at the same time a giant and an albino. He stands eight feet and four inches, and often lights his cigar without re-fort at a street-lamp. Mr. Price is about 50 years of age, and his features are marked by only a slight denture. His wife is a sufferer from total blindness. Miss Pettit, though a maiden of 42, has been deaf to all woes until she met Mr. Price. He, on the other hand, has been married, but six years ago his wife died with a fat boy, and the courts granted him a divorce. His daughter is at present earning fame as a snuff-chamber in a Baltimore museum.

At the appointed time the form of the glance was given, and the bride and groom were seated upon the stage, the blushing bride clinging to the arm of the groom. The reason they entered from the front of the house was that the girl of the bride prevented her ingress by the stage-door, as about half of the way produced, and the lady was huddled and shoved over the footlights, followed by the giant and the Reverend Moorehead. A moment later a floral towel-rack was taken up. The bride fell and the groom, and the couple stood side by side before the minister. The lovely Mrs. George Eusey, acting in the capacity of Irish emigrant, in which she had just appeared on the stage, gave the bride a kiss, and the Rev. Mr. Price, who was Wilson took the parts respectively of best man, and bridesmaid, each holding a bouquet of roses. The only fact that the most capricious might have foreseen, was that the bride had expected to share before the ceremony. There was enthusiastic applause when Mr. Price kissed the new Mrs.
Price, who was seated in pink silk on train, and decollete, and a large throng watched her ascend the stairs and afterwards take her place next to the bride in the exhibition room. The happy couple made a brief al-tour to Harlan later in the evening.

THAT EVANSVILLE CHARNEL HOUSE.

Half a Ton of Human Bones—Some Ghastly Facts.

—Evansville, Ind., Feb. 25.—The facts which were referred to the municipal commission house were not exaggerated. There is in the cellar probably half a ton of human bones thrown in a heap. In one room which had not before been visited, amidst a mass of vermin, were found the remains of about a dozen undeveloped children. The darkness of the place has been intensified by thoughtless and unfeeling persons. The stairing passage, having on one elbow, and his grinning face was wide open, with his silly eyes looking menacingly at the door. Near a window overlooking the workhouse was the skeleton of a woman lying on a bedstead. A skeleton of a negro, and a blackboard made of smaller subjects. Since Monday many parts of sodas have been removed by relic-hunters, or for the purpose of terrorizing sensitive dividuals. One fellow secured the largest and most repulsive-looking skull in the collection and placed it on a hitchingpost on the corner opposite the court house, where it remained until knocked off into the gutter by a team. It is reported that the grand jury has the case in hand, and would give the matter a prompt and thorough investigation. It is also rumored that the indignant citizens will set fire to the house, and before morning all that will be left of the charnel-house will be a mass of blackened ruins.

Afraid Yeout Will Skip.
—New York, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Dudley, the assistant of O'Donovan Rossa, is still a prisoner in the Tombs, having thus far been unable to procure bail. Mr. Butts, one of the counsel for the prisoner, has reported that he expected to procure bail for her in a day or two. He said the great trouble about procuring bail for her is the fact that the prisoner's fatherly liberty she will flee to England, where she expects to be honored for her attempt on Rossa's life.

Slava was re-elected president.

John Keene Is Hired Again.
—New York, Feb. 25.—The belief that Mr. John R. Keene had been hired to replace the late Mayor in the office of the city clerk, seems to be growing in Wall street.
His friends declare that he has always been right in his general theories, and was always in advance of the market. O. 950 them said, "His failure to secure the relief of the amount of good, it is made him manages of his would-be friends. When a man becomes so he is safe."

Gordon's Fervent Letter.
—Cairo, Feb. 25.—A letter from Gen. Gordon dated Dec. 14 addressed to a friend in this city has just been received. Gordon said that all was well, and that he expected to be in about ten days' time. He added "It would have been otherwise had the government kept me informed. Adieu, etc." manic, which has arrived at Liverpool from New York, was wrecked on the Inman Steamship City of Chester, from New York, February 12 for Liverpool, disabled, 400 miles west of Pastat.

Killed by an Old Gun.
—Cleveland, Feb. 25.—Samuel Gratton, marshal of Forest, Ohio, fell while skating at a roller rink, driving the point of a sawing-machine on which he had in a pocket, into his hip. He suffered great pain, and died in a short time.

Wounded and the Arab Chief.
—Khartoum, Feb. 25.—A former reception extended to the native chiefs, Gen. Lord Dufferin, assured them of his determination to recapture Khartoum.

Insanity on the Increase. Statistics show this. Many cases brought on by overwork, anxiety, excitement, mental trouble and nervous prostration; it is a curable disease. Incurable sleeplessness induces dyspepsia, jaundice, bad breath, piles, pimple, low spirits, headache, etc.
